

Core Initiatives

- Core's Construction Industry Panel of Mediators and Facilitators offers a group of trained and accredited professionals headed up by Alastair Kelly and Duncan Fraser. They are available to act in projects and contracts where the involvement of an external third party can assist to break a logjam, overcome deadlock, plan a new approach or resolve a dispute.
- The Professional Practice Dispute Resolution Team is available to work with GP practices, law firms, accountancy firms, architects, surveyors, engineers and others who have, or anticipate, internal differences and who seek to avoid prolonged stress and time-consuming conflict by managing and resolving these quickly and constructively. The team includes Hugh Donald, Dr Robert Hendry, Judith Scott CA and Alastair Thornton
- Core's Personal Injury and Smaller Claims Schemes provides a facility for those less complex claims under £30,000 which can be resolved in a relatively short time-frame. Offering four-hour mediation meetings, the aim is to assist parties to use mediation in a cost-effective, time-efficient and streamlined way. Headed up by Pamela Lyall and Lesley Gray.
- Organisations and Workplace Initiative: Design, Coach and Implement Solutions provides organisations with guidance on designing dispute management systems, coaching key managers and executives and helping in the implementation, review and delivery phases.
