

Sandy Wilson

Sandy trained as a mediator with Core following his 35 year banking career with The Royal Bank of Scotland, where he gained in-depth expertise in dispute resolution. He was latterly national Head of Recoveries & Litigation, Global Restructuring Group.

Mediation Experience

- Trained as a mediator with Core Solutions Group in 2009 and involved in a number of mediations since, including matters involving commercial contracts, company valuations, employment, professional negligence and shareholder disputes.
- Extensive mediation experience as an adviser, including:
  - Bank to bank disputes
  - Commercial contract
  - Company valuations
  - Construction disputes
  - Alleged banking shortcomings
  - Property / land disputes
  - Professional negligence / professional indemnity insurance
  - Corporate insolvency
  - Security enforcement
  - Alleged fraud / misrepresentation
  - Senior management employment differences
  - Shareholder disputes
- Sandy's mediation style is constructive, open-minded and enthusiastic and draws on his extensive commercial negotiation and dispute resolution experience

Professional Experience

- 35 year commercial experience as a career banker (A.C.I.B. (Scot)).
- Joined the Royal Bank of Scotland straight from Strathclyde University, where he graduated with a B.A. (Business Administration), and retired from RBS in 2008. Retained as a banking / litigation consultant until 2009 and currently, in addition to mediating with Core, independently acts as a banking / lending expert.
- Wide business, commercial, corporate / large corporate, banking experience including 3 years in RBS New York. From 1991 specialised in corporate restructuring (bi-lateral, multi-banked and syndicated), turnaround, work-outs and insolvency with London-based executive management responsibilities from 1994. Board experience as Director appointed to Board of hotel sector joint venture.
- Considerable personal involvement from 2000 in both complex (including cross-border) litigation and litigation in SME, commercial and corporate sectors.