

DAVID MORTON

- Graduated MBChB Glasgow University, 1969.
- 26 years experience until 1997 as a general medical practitioner in Greenlaw Medical Centre, Paisley.
- Special interest in occupational health, acting as medical officer for several large companies.
- 8 years experience till 2005 as a medical director providing leadership for doctors, dentists and pharmacists in both acute and primary care.
- 6 years concurrently as an executive board member of West of Scotland NHS trusts.
- Involved in and led a succession of organisational changes.
- Considerable involvement in performance management, community relations and complaints handling.
- Accredited as a mediator with Core Mediation 2004 and have participated in a number of mediations since.
- Currently an independent facilitator to clinical services.